

SIG events 22 April 2020, Wednesday

	Transnational Social Work	Social Work Practice	Research on Social Work and Policy Engagement	Human Rights and Social Justice
9.30-11.50	Moving from „North“ to „South“. Reverse migration as a new challenge for (transnational) social work	Collaboration in Practice Research	Researching the routes through which social workers influence policy	The right to participation in knowledge creation. Exploring the role of service-users in researching human rights and social justice in social work
11.50-13.00	Welcome by: Csaba Degi, Local Organizing Committee; Karen Winter, ESWRA SIG Lead
13.00-15.20	Moving from „North“ to „South“. Reverse migration as a new challenge for (transnational) social work	Collaboration in Practice Research	Researching the routes through which social workers influence policy	The right to participation in knowledge creation. Exploring the role of service-users in researching human rights and social justice in social work

	Service User Involvement	Substance Use	Social Work, History & Social Work and Social Pedagogy Research	Gerontological Social Work Research
9.30-11.50	Ethical aspects of the involvement of service users in research and education. Involvement as a human rights principle	Methods, knowledge, and power: exploring methodologies for researching long-term recovery in different international contexts	Social work and social pedagogy - different historical origins or joint histories?	Overview on current activities with special focus on methodological innovations/practices in gerontological research
11.50-13.00	Lunch
13.00-15.20	Ethical aspects of the involvement of service users in research and education. Involvement as a human rights principle	Methods, knowledge, and power: exploring methodologies for researching long-term recovery in different international contexts	Social work and social pedagogy - different historical origins or joint histories?	Overview on current activities with special focus on methodological innovations/practices in gerontological research

	Critical Realism and Social Work Research Special Interest Group	Social Work and Health	The Decisions, Assessment, and Risk DARSIG	Researching Social Work with Children and Families
9.30-11.50	Realist evaluation of social work research	TBC	Legal and organizational aspects of decision making	Social work and social pedagogy - different historical origins or joint histories?
11.50-13.00		Lunch
13.00-15.20	Realist evaluation of social work research	Social Work Ethics Research	Mental Health	Arts in Social Work